BRINGS HIS CHUM BLUSHING BRIDE FROM THE WAR

GREAT REJOICING OVER A ROMANCE BEGUN ON SERBIAN BATTLEFIELD.

Yesterday Judge Dunseath officiated at a wedding, the contracting parties to which were Kristo Vukovich and Mila Gudelj.

The bride has been a resident of Tonopah about a month, since she came direct from Serbia.

One of the Serbian heroes of Tonopah after taking part in the Balkan war decided that before returning to this country of promise he had better take unto himself a bride. He was married and then thinking of his friend Kristo here in single wretchedness he prevailed upon his sister-in-law, Mila, to accompany him to this country in hope that she would become Mrs. Vukovich. As he planned so it happened. The wedding party started Saturday morning to celebrate the coming event and plenty of wine, liquor and cake were purchased for the purpose.

After celebrating all Saturday and Sunday night, Sunday morning the party repaired to a house purchased by the groom where they congregated all their friends. Here again was a big spread, plenty of wine, booze and edibles, chief among which was a wedding cake over two feet high and six feet in circumference. After arriving at the house the party sent a taxi for Judge Dunseath with imperative command to come at once to perform the ceremony. The judge responded and after partaking generously of the refreshments offered proceeded to unite the happy couple.

The house was filled to overflowing with the friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

FIRST DIVIDEND ON NORTH STAR TO BE PAID DECEMBER

HERMAN ZADIG PROMISES THE BOYS OF TONOPAH CHRISTMAS GIFT.

That a dividend will be declared on the North Star before the holiday is the assurance given by Hermann Zadig of that company in conversation with friends at the Mizpah yesterday. As to the amount of this disbursement he would not commit himself, but in private conversation he told close friends that they might look for a ten cent payment. This would mean the distribution of $100,000 and suffice to recoup the original stockholders for their nerve in sticking to the North Star at a time when Irish dividends were the regular order of affairs. Altogether the assessments called for the payment of nine cents, so that the first dividend of the North Star will return this money and a small bonus as a guarantee of good faith.

Mr. Zadig spent all day Sunday underground in the North Star and is devoting today to the Rescue Eula, which he predicts will duplicate the experience of the Star or he will be vastly disappointed.

"The North Star," he said, "is certainly looking fine, but it is no use saying anything to any one about it for they will not believe it. The only way is to go down and see for yourself. What we are more concerned about that anything else is in getting the property into shape for a record tonnage. By the first of September we will be shipping at the rate of an average of 150 tons a day, which is not bad for a property which three months ago was calling on stockholders for assessments. And, what's more, you can say this output will be kept up. The North Star is one of the big mines of Tonopah and the ore body is increasing all the time. The reserves are growing larger and as soon as we get our shaft straightened out and shipping facilities improved you will see what the Star can do."

After celebrating all Saturday and Sunday night, Sunday morning the party repaired to a house purchased by the groom where they congregated all their friends. Here again was a big spread, plenty of wine, booze and edibles, chief among which was a wedding cake over two feet high and six feet in circumference. # A. L. McLEAN, PUMPMAN ON THE SAND GRASS, CRUSHED BY CAGE WHILE WORKING IN SHAFT

This afternoon A. L. McLean, a pumpman at the Sandgrass, was injured very seriously by being caught by a descending cage. # Pennant Winners In Major Leagues Actively Canvassed

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Although the concluding games of the major league baseball season are still two months away, interest in the pennant races is already overshadowed by the possibilities of play in the world's series. This unusual situation in the camp of the national sport is due entirely to the runaway race being made by the leading teams in the National and American leagues. Not in some years have such wide margins separated the first and second clubs in both major associations at this state of the pennant races. There have been several examples of the so-called runaway race in one or the other of the two big leagues, but simultaneous and sustained spurts like these uncovered by both the Giants and the Athletics are unusual.

A glance back over the records of the clubs in both leagues during the past few years shows that as a rule where one league had a leader well out in front the struggle for the other pennant was close and the outcome uncertain at this period of the season. While the Athletics and Giants are leading their respective leagues by approximately a hundred point margin over the runner-up, the 1912 records show the Boston Red Sox but half that advantage and the Giants about three-quarters of their present margin. In the National league New York had won 72 and lost 27 games for a percentage of .727 on August 9. The Chicago Cubs were trailing second 87 points in the rear, with Pittsburgh and Philadelphia holding third and fourth places. The American league standing showed Boston to have won 71 and lost 35 games with Washington second with 65 and 49, giving Jake Stahl's Red Sox a lead of 59 points. The Athletics were still in the race and the Chicago White Sox had an outside chance from fourth place.

The 1911 races were far closer, for the Athletics had but 22 points over the Detroit club in the American league, and Chicago was leading Pittsburgh by just 9 points in the National. But 50 points separated the first four clubs in the senior association, while the New York team holding fourth place in the American league was 135 points in the rear of the Athletics, with Detroit and Boston between it and the leaders.

Will resist impeachment proceedings until new assembly qualifies.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—A brief statement from Governor Sulzer last night denying that he speculated in Wall street, and admitting the temporary personal use of campaign contributions, has caused speculation on the attitude the governor will take toward threatened impeachment, which is expected to result from the report of the legislative committee tonight. The legislature it is believed will seek the courts to sustain the contention that the present legislature has ceased to exist and thus delay impeachment proceedings until the new assembly has qualified.

The Chicago Cubs were right at their heels, less than 20 points separating the leader and runner-up. The New York and Cincinnati clubs were third and fourth respectively, but far below the percentage standing of the first and second clubs. The American league race was even closer. Detroit with 62 games won and 38 lost had just 20 points over Philadelphia, which club had won 60 and lost 40 for a percentage of .600. Boston and Cleveland were both within striking distance of the leaders, for there were but 75 points between the Tigers in first place and the Cleveland club in fourth.

HORSE THIEF SELLS STOCK IN TONOPAH AND MAKES HIS GETAWAY BEFORE THE OFFICERS ARE INFORMED OF THE CRIME

After two months constant search for Tonopah. The horses were stolen from the ranch of the Ed. Stock Land and Cattle company in Paradise valley and a reward of $550 was offered for the arrest of the thief and return of the horses. A man named Clarence Gale was suspected and the sheriff immediately camped on his trail until he found him. The horses were taken back north this morning by Ed Stock, the owner.

This morning Sheriff Malley received a telegram from Sheriff Lamb of Winnemucca reading as follows: "Gale, alias Johnson just made full confession, admitting theft of horses from Ed Stock Land and Cattle company so it is not necessary to both or with names of witnesses."

Cattle rustling seems to have been revived in the northern tier of counties as this is the second case in a fortnight where a fugitive has been captured and confessed guilt. The other case occurred at Pioche, Lincoln county, where cattle losses have been heavy during the summer months.

By that time the thief who was known here as Johnson had left the county.

Sheriff Lamb had followed the trail of the thief to Austin and then learning that the man who claimed to own the stock had taken the road

BIG WATER FLOW INSPECTED BY THE COUNTY BOARD

WELL AT RAILROAD VALLEY IS ALL THAT IS CLAIMED FOR IT.

The county commissioners returned yesterday from an inspection trip to Railroad valley where they went to inspect the large well sunk by the company. They report it to be a monster, ten inches at the surface and flowing at the rate of 560 gallons per minute.

This looks like a big chance for an irrigation project of the first magnitude at this rate, especially as four other flows were cut in sinking. Hundreds of acres could be irrigated with a single well.

The commissioners will probably inspect a number of roads which are reported to be in bad shape, before their next meeting.

The trip took two days and during that time the party passed over a number of bad sections of road that had been complained of as being unfit for travel. At the next meeting the question of repairing these will be taken up.

The purpose of the inspection of the well was to enable the Railroad Valley company to file on their findings a claim for the bounty of $2500 which has been offered by the state for the first person to sink a well not less than 6 inches in diameter at the bottom, 1000 feet in depth and flowing at a rate of not less than 60 gallons per minute.
